PROSPECTUS 2022 - 2023

About the College:

Dasarathi Hazra Memorial College is a Govt. – aided college of The University of Burdwan. The ardent zeal of the local people and high demand of the students led to the establishment of this college. In the 1970s, Mr. Bholanath Sen, the- then Minister of Public Works Department, made a significant contribution for the social and cultural development of Bhatar block. It was his dream to establish a college for providing opportunity of higher education to the students of this locality and its adjoining villages. Mr. Sen's dream was realized when Mr. Banamali Hazra, the former MLA of Bhatar, having felt the dire need of a college put his dedicated efforts for the establishment of this college since 2011. His sincerest efforts got momentum when Mr. Ashok Hazra, Mr. Anil Hazra, Mrs. Kanika Hazra, enthusiastic social workers of the locality, donated land for the establishment of the college. The foundation-stone of the college was led on 14.12.2015 by Mr. Banamali Hazra. The college was recognized by the Govt. of West Bengal in 04.01.2013 and got its affiliation to the University of Burdwan on 06.03.2013. The present MLA of Bhatar constituency, Mr. Mangobinda Adhikari has put his sincerest effort and active support for the constant progression of this college.

Location of the College:

The college is located in Sotkhali (near Bhatar Hospital) Bhatar in the district of Purba Bardhaman. The location is approximately 20 K.M. from Burdwan station, 37 K.M. from Katwa, 20K.M. from Maldanga Bus Stand and 20 K.M. from Gushkara. For its well-communicated location, the college is expected to become one of the pioneering academic institutions of the district in near future.

Vision of the College: To enlighten and guide the students of the locality and support them to become better citizens of the country.

Mission of the College:

To develop academic awareness in the local community.

To maintain congenial academic-administrative atmosphere in the college campus.
